Capturing nature's delicate side: Botanical art meets the magic of Lace

An exhibition of original limited edition prints by artist Helen A Taylor

Local artist Helen Taylor has been working with The Cowper and Newton Museum, over the last year making work inspired by their collections, culminating in an exhibition at The Three Hares Gallery at the museum in October 2023.

The exhibition features her usual botanical and architectural prints, many inspired by her home city of Milton Keynes. But also, new work which combines her love of flowers and plants, with inspiration from the museum's collection of historic lace.

The Three Hares Gallery,
Cowper & Newton Museum, Market Place, Olney, Bucks MK46 4AJ.
Located in the historic hub of Olney, facing the Market Place.
